

Gwenllian's Lament

Melancholy

1. My kins - men, where are you? Why
 2. Sur - round - ed by peo - ple yet
 3. How long have I wait - ed un - 4. My kins - men, where are you? How do you de - lay, While I in the cast off a - lone, I long for the a - ble to flee, stay not know - ing which long must I stay im - pris - oned in lone - li - ness of pri - son must stay? Oh, gen - tle - ness of voi - ces i've known, that path to take to set my - self free — nor lone - li - ness, a - wait - ing the day of when will you find me my ex - iie to sang to me soft - ly in my na - tive know - ing if you know where they've hid - den loves re - u - nit - ed, of friend - ships re - end, tongue me, stored and those a - that free prec - lone ling - er me pre - cious in the in from old the in sol - i - tude — my lul - la - bies, when ban - ish - ment of mem - o - ries through un - wel - I was un - cer - heart - ache come so tain - ty. out - poured? and those a - that free pre - lone ling - er me pre - cious in the in from old the in sol - i - tude — my lul - la - bies, when ban - ish - ment of mem - o - ries through un - wel - I was un - cer - heart - ache come so tain - ty. out - poured.

Words & Music by
Toby D. Griffen